The Texas National Bank has been organized at Galveston, with a capital of $300,000. We believe this is the first bank ever established in that State.

General Featherstone, of Holly Springs, late Commander of a brigade in Confederate army, was in Jackson on New Year's Day. He has resumed the practice of law.

Brevet Brig. Gen. J. H. Bell resigned February 13th. He entered the service as a private in 1861, and worked his way up to a brigadiership. He was severely wounded at Antietam and Fredericksburg.

The Stockton Independent of the 26th of February is authority for the following extraordinary story: R. B. Smith, we are informed, has a flock of eighteen hundred sheep on his ranch, near the San Joaquin river, and from the flock this season has about two thousand four hundred lambs. Several of the ewes had five lambs each, and quite a number had four each.

The Washington Republican, referring to the statements concerning Butler's discourteous note to Gen. Grant, says: "We feel justified and authorized to say that Gen. Butler's card did not contain the disgraceful words, 'or any other member of your family;' but he did send a card containing the following language: 'Gen. Butler has the honor to decline the invitation of Lieut. Gen. Grant.' Gen. Butler has now no desire for further acquaintance."

The French are going in for big guns. The frigate Magnanime, fitting out at Brest, together with the Guyenne and Revanche, now building, is about to be armed with pretty little barkers of 150 and 300 pounds calibre, and so are the turret-ships constructing or to be constructed. All the iron-clads, including the Solferino, Magenta, etc., are to be supplied with these charming apparatus for knocking tips off the noses of hostile sailors.

The Artesian wells at Chicago are now discharging 1,250,000 gallons per day of the purest water. These wells are located near the city limits—about eight miles from the City Hall—are 700 feet deep, and discharge an immense volume of clear cold water. The water which rises to the surface stands at 57 degrees Farenheit, which is below the mean temperature of the locality, while in the other deep wells the temperature increases in proportion to the descent.

A correspondent of the Alameda Gazette, writing from Vallejo's Mill, says: "Work will probably be soon resumed on the Western Pacific Railroad, on the Alameda Creek. Boarding-house keepers are already making preparation and laborers seeking employment on the road, and lively times are anticipated. The Vallejo Mills property, consisting of the mill, water privileges and twelve acres of land, passed into the possession of J. S. Doe, of San Francisco, who bought under a decree of sale on mortgage for foreclosure for about $30,000. Mr. Doe wishes to lease the property."

There is great activity in all the shipbuilding towns in Maine, not only in building but in preparing to commence vessels in the spring, should the prospects be favorable. At Waldboro there are over 20 vessels on the stocks, barks and schooners, the latter being very large, of about 350 tons each; at Thomaston 6 or 7 vessels are building, the largest being 1,500 tons; at Boothbay 3 schooners are on the stocks; at Bristol, 1 brig and 4 schooners are under way; at Warren, a ship of 1,000 tons; at Damariscotta a schooner of 300 tons.

THE SUPREME COURT ON MINING TITLES.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin writes from Washington as follows:

It will be remembered that Congress, last winter, at the suggestion of Senator Stewart, in reorganising the United States Circuit of the Tenth District so as to include Nevada, provided that suits involving the question of ownership in mines upon the public domain, might be carried up on appeal to the Supreme Court, and that in passing upon th[illegible] the Court should receive evidence as to possessory title. Before the enactment of the law containing this provision, no such suits could be entertained, as the Court would have decided the title to be in the United States, and would have recognized no other. The effect of the act, was thus, as intended, to give the highest judicial sanction to the mining law of possession. Within a day or two the Supreme Court has passed upon the first case involving this important principle. In an opinion, which will shortly be printed, the Court has given the mining code of the Pacific, or the American miner's system of common law, very much the same sanction and effect under national authority, which it has under the statutes of California and Nevada, and the local courts of those States. The case was that of Strong vs. Sparrow, in which one of the mining rights of Nevada was in litigation. It has no intrinsic importance but is of great interest from the fact that it first drew from the Supreme judiciary of the Republic an affirmation of the equity of mining laws, and gives them an effect quite beyond legislation. The ordinary affidavit was filed to the effect that the matter in dispute was of the value of $2,000.—A motion was made to dismiss the writ of error, because there could be no right in individuals to these mines, the title to the same being in the United States, and therefore it could not be valued in money. The Court (Chief Justice Chase giving the opinion) refused to dismiss the writ, saying: "We cannot shut our eyes to the public history which informs us that under the legislation [of Nevada,] and not only without interference by the National Government but under its implied sanction, vast mining interests have grown up, employing many millions of capital, and contributing largely to the prosperity and improvement of the whole country." The law thus declared by the Court gives in effect to our Pacific mining rights the same characteristics that were intended by the act of last winter, and provides the amplest security for the property that has been acquired by the tacit consent of Congress. Since this opinion, applied as it will be, and probably before long, in numerous other cases, it will be impossible to pass any Act for the survey and sale of the mineral lands which fails to recognize and confirm the title of parties in bona fide possession prior to its passage. Rights have accrued under the non-interference policy of Congress, which that body, cannot fail to hold sacred, whatever policy for the future it may see fit to make with reference to mineral lands unoccupied. Mr. Sherman's bill for the survey and sale of mineral lands still sleeps in Committee, and those of our Pacific delegation who are on that Committee will be in no hurry to report it back. They are merely a unit in opposition to any change in the present system, but if a majority of Congress should sooner or later, as is not improbable, prove to be favorable to change, they will insist upon the gratuitous conveyance of fee simple titles to honest holders of mining claims, and upon some plan whereby unoccupied mineral regions will be left open to the prospector and to pre-emption, in small lots at a moderate cost, by actual discoverers, subject to careful restrictions looking to the prevention of speculation and monopoly.

THE CHARGES AGAINST JEFF. DAVIS AND OTHERS.—A Washington dispatch, February 6th, says:

The President to-day transmitted to the House of Representatives communications from the Secretary of War and the Attorney General, in reply to a resolution requesting him, if not incompatible with the public interests, to furnish any report or reports made by the Judge Advocate General, or any other officer of the government, as to the grounds, facts or accusations upon which Jefferson Davis, Clement C. Clay, Jr., Stephen R. Mallory and David L. Yulee, or either of them, are held in confinement.

The Attorney General says to the President: "Sundry reports of the facts which go to show that Jefferson Davis and other rebels have been guilty of high crimes have been made to you, as the chief executive officer of the government. Most of the evidence on which they are based was obtained ex parte, without notice to the accused; and while they were in custody in military prisons, their publication might wrong the government, or the accused, or both. While I see that much wrong may flow from the publication, I cannot see that any good would come from it. In my opinion public and private justice alike demand that they should not be made public."

The Secretary of War says to the President: "These reports were made for your own information, and contain abstracts of evidence and ex parte proof in possession of the Bureau of Military Justice. Pending any action in respect to the parties accused, the publication of the report is, in my opinion, incompatible with the public interest."

The President concurs in these opinions.

THE WASHINGTON TERRITORY FEMALE EMIGRANT CASE.—In the case of Jacob N. Balch, against Asa S. Mercer and others of the Pacific Female Emigration scheme, the Superior Court, New York, rendered a decision, February 14th, denying the motion to restrain the California, Oregon and Mexican Steamship Company from parting with property in their possession alleged to belong to defendants. The decision is as follows:

It appears from the papers before me, that the company on the 3d of January, 1866, made a contract with defendant Mercer to carry him 75 passengers, with their luggage and goods, from New York to San Francisco for the sum of $8,000; that Mercer, instead of limiting himself to the number of passengers contracted for, and, no doubt, for the express purpose of obtaining large sums of money from his victims, induced a much greater number than the 75 to pay the passage money to him, he representing to them that they should go by the company's boat, the Continental. I will remark here that there is no evidence whatever before me showing that the company had knowledge of any excess of passengers engaged by Mercer over the 75 which they contracted to carry. Mercer, it appears, had agreed to acquaint his victims of the time and place of sailing of the steamship, and the trick he resorted to to get off with his booty was not to notify more of the passengers than the 75, the number agreed to be carried by the company, so that only that number, with himself, got off in the steamer, leaving the plaintiff and others behind.

It further appears that Mercer obtained bills of lading from the company for goods and freight to the amount of $25,000, which goods and freight belonged to himself and passengers, and this application is for the order or injunction of this Court restraining the company from parting with the possession of the bills of lading or the goods so shipped until their claim against Mercer for a breach of contract is satisfied. It further appears that before the inception of this application on the part of the plaintiff the steamship Continental, with the bills of lading and freight, had departed from this State for her port of destination on the Pacific side. On a careful examination of all the facts and circumstances, as presented to the Court, I am of opinion that I would not be justified in exercising the powers called for by the plaintiff.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE RICHMOND "EXAMINER."—A dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat gives this version of the revocation by the President of the order of Gen. Grant, suppressing the Richmond Examiner:

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The following is the conversation which took place between the President and Mr. Pollard last evening:

Mr. Pollard, on entering, said: "Mr. President, you doubtless remember me calling with Mr. Florence, of the Constitutional Union. My name is Pollard, and I am editor and proprietor of the Richmond Examiner, and would like to have the order suppressing it revoked. I understand that Gen. Grant issued the order, and that there is only one article to which he objects, and that was written by a local, and without knowledge, and [illegible] in a spirit of fun. There may have been articles containing strictures upon the Government, but I don't now approve of their appearing, and hereafter the paper shall be properly conducted."

All this Pollard said in the most humble way.

The President replied: "I know nothing about it, as I cannot take much time to read; but it has been represented to me that your paper is very disloyal. The order came from Gen. Grant and I will have nothing to do with it except to refer the matter back to him." The President then wrote to Gen. Grant, requesting that he would revoke the order. This Gen. Grant refused. The President then wrote again, making the same request, but Grant stood firm. The President then, upon Pollard's promise to support his policy in future, in the face of Gen. Grant's order, gave Pollard permission to resume publication.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 20, 1866.

The Primaries To-Day.

As all are aware, the Union primary meetings for this county are appointed for to-day. In the primaries the people have supreme control of their own political affairs; but after these meetings have passed by, it is no longer in the power of the people to control and direct those matters precisely as they desire. The primaries may be and should be managed by the people themselves, independent of anybody's dictation. It is not unfrequently the case that men refuse to take part in the primary meetings, and after they have been held, complain bitterly of the way in which they were managed, and even refuse to support the candidates who are put in nomination. When good men neglect or refuse to attend the primary meetings, whose fault is it if unworthy candidates are brought forward? Clearly the fault of those who omit to perform this first and highest of political duties. At the primaries to-day we hope to have a full attendance of all whose political associations have been and are still with the Union party. If all our Union voters attend to the matter now before them, none will have just reason to be dissatisfied with the result. Some, of course, will meet with disappointment; but they can have no cause to complain when the claims of others are preferred over their own by the masses of the party. Let us have a general attendance at the primaries to-day, and this duty performed, let us all then work with a united will to secure the success of the ticket which will be put in nomination by the Convention now to be chosen.

CIRCULATE THE DOCUMENTS.—The Confederates of Oregon are doing one thing in which the Union men must not be behind—they flood the country with documents. If such documents were only truthful statements of the great issues pending, we could wish them all speed, but they are mostly vile appeals to the baser passions, ignorance, and bad blood towards the Government, misrepresentations of political history and disgraceful exhortations to rally to the support of principles against which the nation has just waged a fearfully terrible war, and won a victory, which must now be ratified and turned to practical account by Union victories at the polls. To secure the substantial fruits of the victory, the people only need to understand the true issues of the time. They will vote right if not misled. It is the business of Union men now to keep the public well posted. Circulate in all your neighborhoods, the documents which your County and State committees will provide. Circulate the Union newspapers everywhere. See that every man who can read be supplied with a true blue Union paper through the campaign. The Confederates at every little club meeting, force this matter upon the attention of every man of their faith. The Union men should be equally alive to the success of their party and cause.

HARMONIOUS.—The Union Convention of Clackamas county had a very harmonious session, and made the most of its nominations with an unanimity quite flattering to the gentlemen who received them. The ticket chosen is a good one and, we believe, will be elected beyond a peradventure, by a handsome majority.

Accounts from Marion, represent the feeling of Union men toward their county ticket as cordial, and Marion's old majority of 600 will be reproduced in its favor.

In both these conventions the strongest determination was manifested to maintain the organization of the Union party till it shall carry the country through all the perils that beset it. If the Confederates have had any hopes of division and defeat of the Union party in either Clackamas or Marion, they may undeceive themselves at once. The Union men have started into the campaign with the watchword of Union and victory and victory they will achieve.

GO TO WORK.—The greater part of the counties have now their tickets in the field, and judging from the temper of such conventions as we have heard from, the prospects for Union victories are ever, where as good as two years ago. But Union men must not sit down having their victories won for them, without individual participation in the campaign. They have a foe which is vigilant, active and fired with a lately born hope of success. Let Union men teach them how, having won the victories of the Union on a thousand bloody battle grounds, they can again win them at the ballot box. Let every Union man go into this contest with the spirit which animated our heroic soldiers—a spirit which knew no such word as "fail." The time for personal strifes is passed, and the time for united and determined action has come. Bury the jealousies engendered by primary rivalries, and demonstrate your devotion to the Union cause by a noble devotion in the struggle for a victory over a common foe.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY ITEMS.—A Mr. Horton and his associates are preparing pipes for the purpose of supplying the town of Olympia with pure spring water, from one of the adjacent eminences.

The project of a woolen factory at Olympia is still agitating the capitalists of that neighborhood.

Wm. H. Goddard is advertised to deliver a free lecture at Vancouver, Wednesday evening, on the subject of Health Reform.

TWO POINTS STATED.—The Herald, yesterday, stated the Democratic creed: The immediate admission of Southern representatives and taxation of United States bonds. Well, there are only two points—are they all? Why, Jimmy O'Meara, in two numbers would have stated a hundred and sworn that each was vital, and that the Government couldn't live a twelve-month without an affirmative decision on each and every one of them.

A large horn, says the Courier, was recently found imbedded at a depth of fifteen feet in the earth near Dayton. In size, taper, curve and general outline, it resembles that worn by an ordinary ox, but is much larger. It is five inches in diameter at the large end, and is supposed to have been about seven feet in length. Much of it was taken out in fragments, so that the exact length could not be ascertained.

The unterrified Democracy of Oregon City held a Precinct meeting on Saturday for the election of delegates to their County Convention, but nobody seemed to know where or when it was done. The delegates selected are said to be the same old Straight Democrats who persistently opposed the Union forces during the late rebellion, and to be consistent, they propose to do now what they can against the Union party.

SENATOR WILLIAMS.—We learn from Eastern journals that Senator Williams delivered a powerful speech in the Senate on the 15th of February, upon the proposition to amend the Constitution so as to make voters the basis of representation. His argument on the status of the insurgent States is said to have been exceedingly powerful. We have not been able to obtain a full report of the speech.

C. H. Swift, Union candidate for First Trustee of Sacramento City, was elected on the 14th by over 400 majority over W. F. Knox, the Confederate candidate.

IDAHO MATTERS.—E. D. Holbrook, Delegate from Idaho, has introduced bills for the appropriation of $50,00 for public buildings in Boise City, Idaho; to establish a land office in Boise City; to provide for the survey of the boundary line between Idaho and Oregon; and to establish a number of mail routes, among which is one between Ruby City, Idaho, via. Pueblo Valley, to Chico, in California.—Washington Cor. Bulletin.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 19.

Military Protection on the Plains.

CHICAGO, March 19.—General Pope has written to the War Department concerning his plan of establishing military posts from Minnesota to Montana. He says that he intends to place a large garrison at Wadsworth, and also at Fort Riley. Military posts will be re-established at Fort Berthold and Fort Union at the mouth of the Yellow-Stone river. There will also be a post at the crossing of Powder river, nearly due west of Powder hills, and two other posts between there and Virginia City, Montana. This arrangement will give a direct and good route from Southwest Minnesota to Montana via Sioux Falls, Fort Riley, Black Hills and the valley of the upper Yellow-Stone river. The posts thus established, will be instructed to furnish all assistance in their power to emigrants.

Canada and anti-Fenian Precautions.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Reports from all parts of Canada and along our borders represent that St. Patrick's day passed off without any disturbance, and the Canadians breathe freer. Nevertheless, it is proposed to keep the volunteers under arms some time longer, and even organize a Home Guard for a reserve corps. The expense of the present military establishment is fixed at $50,000 per day in gold, making a total of five hundred and fifty thousand already.

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The steamship Germania, from Southampton, 7th, arrived last evening.

Gladstone announced in the House of Commons that the reform bill would be read on the 12th. It would only apply to England and Wales. He hoped then to state the course to be taken in regard to Scotland.

The Lord Chancellor's bill to make parties to a divorce suit complainants to answer any questions as to whether they have not committed adultery, was vetoed.

The London Times says: The courage and decision exhibited by President Johnson in refusing his assent to the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, confirms the respect in which his policy has been held in England, and will entitle him to credit as one of the ablest statesmen who have ever conducted a great nation successfully through a crisis, by firmness, moderation and wisdom.

The prospectus of a new company has been issued. It is called the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, with £600,000 capital for laying a new cable and raising the old one, introduced by Morgan & Co., with Mr. Peabody on the board of directors.

It is rumored that Prince Cousen has addressed the Great Powers, protesting against his forced abdication and soliciting their assistance to obtain his reinstatement. Cousen has arrived at Vienna. The Porte claims authority to intervene in the principalities on account of the dissension between political parties. Masses of troops are being concentrated at Widden, Prest, Chooka and Silistria.

Paris has been selected for conference on principalities. Three regiments of Cossacks have reinforced the Russian corps of observation on the Moldowal Chain frontier. Reinforcements were despatched from Bucharest and Jassy, and military order established along the frontier of the Pruth.

Spain has demanded of Portugal the extradition of Spanish soldiers who had taken refuge in Portugal. Portugal hesitates to reply. Two regiments from Rome will return to France in April.

A Montreal dispatch says that the excitement among the bank depositors during last week nearly exhausted the bank funds and would have crippled them, but for Government aid. Depositors living fifty miles distant, came in hot haste to draw their little balances.

California News—Indian Fight—Great Slaughter of Apaches.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Sailed, March 18—Steamer Del Norte, for Victoria; ship Helois, Esquimalt; bark Victor, Puget Sound; bark Oak Hill, Puget Sound; brig Tanner, Puget Sound.

CAMP LINCOLN, ARIZONA, Feb. 18th, via San Francisco March 19th.—A party of Company A, Arizona Volunteers, under Lieut. Gallegos, which left here on the 11th inst., returned, reporting great slaughter of Apaches. After traveling two nights and resting by day, they found Apaches' signs, and scouts were sent out from the main body to ascertain the exact position of the enemy. When found they returned, and the whole body moved within sight of the Apache fires, but occupied a secluded position until two o'clock in the morning, when the command was formed into three divisions, and moved in front of certain caves where the savages were sleeping. They were arranged one above another something like Cosann Coves, and when the attack was begun at day-break, the fight became desperate. The Apaches were taken by surprise, their dogs not even hearing the approach of the troops, so stealthy was their march. The Indians declared that they would not surrender, and one who calls himself Capt. Constantly, defied the troops from an elevated and secure position whence they could not dislodge him. All of the caves that were accessible were filled with dead and wounded. Some thirty are believed to have been killed outright. Thirteen scalps were brought into camp, and twelve prisoners, two squaws and ten children were captured. One of the latter has since died. Seven of the volunteers were wounded, but not dangerously.

The steamer Golden Age, Capt. Farnsworth, of the P. M. S. S. line, left her dock at 11 o'clock A. M. for Panama, with 468 passengers and $878,303 in treasure.

A building formerly occupied as a distillery, and recently as a hay barn, on the Presidio road, took fire last night with a large quantity of hay.

The deaths in this city for the week ending the 17th, numbered fifty.

The Central American Transit Co.'s steamer Moses Taylor, Capt. Blethen, which left San Juan Del Sur March 6th, where she connected with the steamer which left New York Feb. 20th, arrived here last evening. A steerage passenger named James A. Herop, fell overboard from the steamer Rhea on her passage from Graytown on San Juan river, and was drowned. Every effort was made to rescue him, but without success. A boat was lowered which capsized, and one man, a steerage passenger, named H. W. [illegible], was drowned.

John Grant commenced suit to-day against the proprietor of the Russ House to recover $1,475 lost by the robbery of their safe.

Weather cool and pleasant.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain,
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN;
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent:
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

"Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Ague, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

LIFE INSURANCE CO.

In the United States!

EVERY DESCRIPTION OF POLICY ISSUED.

ALL POLICIES ARE NON-FORFEITABLE.

Dividends are declared Annually—which can be applied in Cash in reducing the yearly premium commencing on the second year, or towards buying more insurance.

The "Divi[illegible]" (Feb. 1st, 1866) was nearly double in amount and in proportion to premiums paid than was ever declared in the same space of time by any other Company in the world.

EXAMPLES

OF DIVIDENDS ON POLICIES ISSUED IN 1864.

Am't Policy.	Am't Dividends.	Am't Premiums Paid.
$10,000 00	$578 00	$258 00
10,000 00	530 62	304 40
5,000 00	197 30	111 40
3,000 00	118 48	66 64
1,000 00	52 84	26 82

EXAMPLES

OF POLICIES PAID BY THE COMPANY.

Original Am't Policy.	Dividend Additions.	Total Am't Pd.
$10,000 00	$6,920 00	$16,920 00
5,000 00	3,278 43	8,278 43
4,000 00	2,380 53	6,380 53
1,000 00	1,603 39	2,606 39

N. B.—Particular attention is requested to the advantages afforded by the payment of the premiums, on both Life and Endowment assurance policies, in TEN ANNUAL INSTALLMENTS. The rates of such premiums charged by this Company are lower, while the dividends are greater, than in any other life company in the United States. As an additional inducement, the Company will, on surrender of such policy, issue a paid-up policy for an equitable sum, which they will guarantee [illegible] the amount.

For [illegible], on [illegible] of a policy for $10,000 (other amounts in the same proportion) on which the premiums are payable in ten annual installments, the Company will issue a PAID-UP POLICY which they will guarantee

After the payment of 2 [illegible] ANNUALLY EXCEED $2000
" 3 " " 3000

And so on. On the Five Year Life Plan the pro rata is double.

ENDOWMENT POLICIES are issued payable to the assured at death or any age between 40 and 60, with full participation in the surplus of the Company, thus combining Life Insurance with a safe and profitable investment.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION is called to the Table of Rates by Ten Annual Installments for "Endowments," issued by this Company, which present UNEQUALED ATTRACTIONS, EITHER AS AN INVESTMENT OR PROVISION IN CASE OF PREMATURE DEATH, for it is now universally conceded that aside from the Life Insurance which is combined with the Policy, that there is no way of investing small installments in so safe and highly advantageous a [illegible] as it gives the [illegible] the entire benefits of an immense capital and well regulated Financial Institution. To [illegible] it [illegible] invaluable, and by many is considered an actual necessity for present [illegible] ALONE, for aside from its many other advantages it constitutes the VERY BEST FORM OF COLLATERAL upon which to borrow or convert into cash in cases of emergency, which can be readily accomplished, and for a far greater sum than has been [illegible] on the Policy, [illegible] as from the first it shares in the immense dividends of the Company, [illegible] is non-forfeitable for a full proportionate [illegible] of the entire policy for each and every year's [illegible] paid thereon.

The above class of Policy is attracting much attention throughout the United States. THOUSANDS who have heretofore declined insuring are now rapidly availing themselves of its benefits, as the marvelous rate of increase in the assets of this Company will attest. The cash assets of this Company alone, exceed in amount the total cash assets of the other sixteen companies combined, incorporated in the State of New York, while the CASH dividends for the last two years were nearly double that ever declared by any other Company.

Parties desirous to insure should start in at once to SECURE A FULL YEAR'S DIVIDEND to be declared February 1st, 1867. Apply to [illegible] Funeral.—The unfortunate man, George Hadon, was buried yesterday at the expense of the tax payers. We need not enter into details to show that he was a bad man, and only met the fate of his class, but we would like to point to his career as a warning to young men in our midst who are growing up in vice, giving them the assurance that according to the laws which govern man and the appetite for crime, they are surely drifting in the same channel, and must eventually be wrecked upon the same shoal that has taken so many away who perhaps in early years had kind parents and loving brothers and sisters that have been smitten with grief at the result of small beginnings in a dissolute course. The house in which Hadon was killed has long been a stench in the nostrils of the community, and scenes of the most [illegible] character have been known to transpire there. It was one of the many dens of infamy—too numerous in our city—and we are gratified to see it closed. As the [illegible] are to be taken into question in the examination, we have been permitted to look through them, and [illegible] other may have worse appearing places, this one is bad enough for Portland. The plan of the house is small, and the whole is divided into four narrow rooms, the first of which appears to have been devoted to the retailing of Bacchanalian spirits as a bar is the most [illegible] feature in its furnishings. The second room, about 12 by 16 feet in size, has a bed, washstand and carpet in it—the walls yesterday being mostly decorated with women's clothing, very muddy. The third room was evidently the kitchen, having a cook stove, &c. Off the kitchen is another bed room. One bed was [illegible], and the frame work for another was in the room, the [illegible], etc., scattered over the floor. The house is a mere shell of a thing, without lath or plaster, and must have evidently brought the landlord a good income from [illegible].

A Good Example.—Under orders from the City Council, Street Commissioner Simmons is removing the south fence of the public plaza from the street, bringing it in to the [illegible] established line. This measure was an [illegible] in order that the city might set an example to [illegible] with in all cases. The last report of the [illegible] on streets and public property, recommend [illegible] on a contract for building a side-walk, states that the contractor had "substantially" complied with [illegible], which means considerable. It was shown in the course of remarks upon the subject, that on one [illegible] the city, where there has been new walks laid, [illegible] declined to accept of the work, as it was at [illegible] inches out of the required width, on account of a fence that was not removed by the owner of the property. The Council could not [illegible] to remove their fences to the proper [illegible] city did not set the example. It is [illegible] comply with their [illegible], and [illegible] with obstructions of this class it is their [illegible] it known to the Commissioner, who is [illegible] that the specifications of every contract [illegible] out. The north line of the plaza [illegible] the correct line, but it cannot interfere [illegible] the work of contractors. All sides will [illegible]. The Commissioner informs us that the [illegible] for the transplanting of the south [illegible] at $100, but by calculating the matter, [illegible] the men to do the work under his own [illegible] will cost the city possibly but a fraction [illegible] that sum, which may be taken as [illegible] who may have similar work to [illegible] heavy one, turned pickets, nearly [illegible] and two hundred feet in length.

[illegible].—John Stephens, a Sergeant [illegible] in the ranks of the 14th Infantry, was arraigned [illegible], and among others on trial before Recorder [illegible] yesterday. The charge against him was [illegible] room No. 25, at the Arrigoni House [illegible] that he had taken the clothing, [illegible] he did not break open the trunk in which [illegible]. He says he put them on for fun and [illegible] a short distance—when it occurred to [illegible] regulations did not permit soldiers to [illegible], and he returned, and took them off, [illegible] found there. When arrested [illegible] and other [illegible] as the property of [illegible]. A pair of stockings was also [illegible] and identified, but he left a pair of government [illegible] in their stead. There was a hole in the [illegible] stockings, and the attorney for the defense [illegible] to have the witness assert which stocking [illegible] the right or the left—which [illegible] the holes. The sentence of the court was [illegible] must be submissive to the civil law, and the [illegible] was sent to jail for three months. [illegible] his master, sworn for him, his leave of absence [illegible] on Saturday.

[illegible].—We were invited last evening to [illegible] a piece of handiwork, in the shape of a model ship, lately made in this city by Mr. James [illegible] designed by Mr. James Wh[illegible]. The [illegible] feet long, ten inches [illegible], and is much [illegible] of the Great Western. The work is finely [illegible] and it will be a nice ornament to the lucky [illegible], and as others may see by [illegible] that it is to be raffled off at $1 a [illegible]. Three months were consumed in [illegible] there are seven flags upon it as follows: [illegible] the Irish Jack; 2d, the ship's number, 98; [illegible] of the U. S., 4th, the Captain's [illegible] 5th, boat call; 6th, [illegible]'s pennant; [illegible] Irish national ensign. The name Fenian [illegible] on the quarter. The painting of the ship was [illegible] H. [illegible] are [illegible] call at [illegible] and see the model.

[illegible] Court, Harrison J., March 19th, 1866. [illegible] Stain was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, [illegible] being no room for her in the city jail she [illegible] to go at large.... Geo. Emery, arrested for [illegible] of Wm Nicols, was acquitted.... The [illegible] were the arraignments from drunken and disorderly [illegible], and the disposal of each case: James [illegible] forfeited by non appearance.....John [illegible] fine of $10 and costs..... Eugene Kent, sent [illegible] days.....Wm Nicols, John Jones, and Geo. [illegible] each..... Frank Pierson paid $10 and [illegible] Prior, $5 and costs. It was really a "blue [illegible]" the Court.

[illegible].—The [illegible] of the annual [illegible] the "Gamma Sigma" Society, of the Pacific [illegible] at Forest Grove, which is to take place on May [illegible] been published. The opening address will [illegible] by J. M. Walker, Jr. Hon A. Holbrook, [illegible], will deliver the oration. The President of [illegible] will deliver the farewell address to [illegible] class, to which E. B. Watson, Esq., will [illegible]. If the weather permits we [illegible] there will be [illegible] on this [illegible] from Portland.

[illegible].—From the Vancouver Register [illegible], we learn that another wedding has taken [illegible] Green," the parties being "all of Oregon." In another column of the same paper [illegible] the [illegible] "By a note from T. F. McElroy we are assured that the marriage law as signed and approved is in effect from and after its passage. He says he has compared the printed with the official copy, and they exactly [illegible]." That being the case,—who is to be accountable for the illegal unions arising from the "misunderstanding?" The parties should have a "special Act" [illegible] for their [illegible] them not [illegible].

Freight of the Montana.—The steamer Montana brings, on her present trip, 900 tons of assorted merchandise. It is a larger cargo than has arrived by any vessel at [illegible], and the manner in which it is delivered to the [illegible] "pays," [illegible] by the Montana and the [illegible], should know that it is for, [illegible] by her.

[illegible].—Mr. and Mrs. Vanfridagh, after an [illegible], during which time they took a [illegible] of visiting their friends, [illegible] again to Portland, and resumed business [illegible], at the sign of the Green Band Box. The [illegible] of the firm appears elsewhere this morning, [illegible] of interest to ladies.

The [illegible] Case.—The parties arrested on Sunday, [illegible] on Washington street, where [illegible], were yesterday brought before Justice [illegible] preliminary examination. Two [illegible] and the [illegible] were discharged. The examination of Gallagher [illegible] continued until Wednesday.

[illegible].—There is a gang of dirty loafers in this [illegible] who are professional drunkards. They get drunk [illegible] on the streets avowedly for the purpose of getting a house in the city jail for a short time. A chain [illegible] would be of some service to such fellows.

Steamboat Matters.—Opposition on the Willamette is [illegible] over. The facts have not come to light as yet, [illegible] a change of some kind has evidently taken place in [illegible] by which the companies have compromised, or the Willamette Company have sold to the People's Line.

[illegible].—Judge J. F. McCoy requests us to announce that he respectfully declines, and will not allow his name to go before the county convention on Saturday [illegible], for the nomination for county Judgeship.

Arrival.—The tug [illegible], Capt. Cotno, arrived here from Cape Disappointment, at 9 o'clock last evening. The steamer One Grand, bound up with a barge in tow, was [illegible] at Rainier.

Street Work.—Yamhill street is being McAdamized for the purpose of connecting Front and First streets in that locality. The enterprise is creditable to the property holders, who have undertaken the work without the usual red-tape preparations.

The New Code.—We will state, for the benefit of persons who are applying for information concerning the new Code and all others interested, that it may be had in this city by application to Messrs J. L. Parrish & Co. or Chas. Barrett, at the price established by the State, viz $5.

Redwood Lumber.—The schooner Pacific, Capt. Gage, left San Francisco on the 8th ult., under a charter from W[illegible] John W Sutton & Co. of this city, to load at [illegible] river with a cargo of redwood lumber for this [illegible]. The shipment will amount to about 10,000 feet.

Calico Ball.—We learn that a number of the fair portion of our population propose soon to give a calico ball at Turn Verein Hall. It will no doubt be a luxurious affair.

Agency Established.—The manufacturers of Bradbury's pianos have established an agency in this city at Messrs Shanahan & Dufrene's, on Morrison street.

[illegible].—The bark Almatia, Capt Richardson, [illegible] the Columbia river bar on Sunday, in tow of the tug [illegible].

The Rush.—The arrivals of two steamships on Sunday and yesterday, has brought to our doors the first installment of people for the mining regions.

Sailing of Steamers.—The Pacific is advertised to leave on Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock. The Montana will leave the same day at 6 o'clock P. M.

[illegible] City.—The Echo is advertised to leave for the above place on Thursday, the 22d.

Reciprocating.—We have in our possession a bill "rendered" to parties in this city, as an offset to a bill for services rendered by the first party. It reads as follows:

Portland, March 16th, 1866

M[illegible] Dr., to [illegible]

For the honor of sawing wood,	$20 00
Sundry visits of Capt [illegible]	20 00
Payable in U. S. gold coin	$40 00

An explanation is ordered on the bill as follows—"That it was written wilfully and maliciously and [illegible] to injure the parties interested." We are [illegible] as to whether it will come before the Courts. In case it does we presume there can be no [illegible] Judge [illegible] who will pass on [illegible] that sawing wood is an honest [illegible] available to every man who is "hard up," without cost. As to the visits we presume men may be found, in these days, who deem it undignified to call on a "wood sawyer," but to render an account for "sundry visits" would not imply that the same was valid in law.

"Honor and fame from no condition rise
Act well your part—there all the honor lies."

To Shippers.—Capt. Kelly informs us that the "blow" made about the explosion of chemicals, on board the Montana while loading at San Francisco was a highly colored affair. There was no explosion on the ship, whatever. A case of vitriol exploded on the wharf, but not the least damage occurred on account of it, and it was one of those events happening very frequently, in all parts of the country. People must not believe all they hear from the friends of the monopoly concerning the Montana.

A "Fore and Aft-er."—The steamer Pacific landed on the wharf yesterday, for Mayor George F. Thomas of Walla Walla, the first "fore and aft" vehicle ever brought to Oregon. As a hunting carriage the fore and aft is the best in use, and Walla Walla is situated in a country where it can be used. The vehicle is a fine specimen of workmanship.

A Denial.—The good people of St. John's precinct deny that the parties accused of shooting the mules belonging to Mrs. Johnson live in that precinct and have found that they live just below Portland across the river two miles above the line of St. Johns. The effort to be clear of the disgrace is commendable in the citizens of St. Johns, and we judge from it that they are enabled to say that their population is of a good class generally.

State Items

Mr. Zara Sweet of Eugene City has lately constructed a novel spinning wheel, partly his own invention and partly copied from an Eastern patent. The Journal says of it: "The person who spins sits in a chair and turns a crank and by pressing down a treadle the "head" to which the head is attached runs out on a frame ten feet or more. After the thread is twisted the head is brought back and the thread taken up by a movement of the treadle. On this wheel a person can spin three times as fast as on an ordinary spinning wheel, and with much greater ease."

Mr Mansfield has raised his wharf boat, sunk last week at Albany.

Three horses are said to have been stolen from a man living a few miles from Brownsville, last Thursday. The parties are suspected and pursued.

At the Wasco County Union Convention, Saturday, the following gentlemen were chosen delegates to the Union State Convention: H. A. Hogue, C. H. Hingle, C. Coe, M. Kuntz, J. B. Condon, R. Mays, J. Halloran, O. N. Denny, C. R. Meigs, Z. Donnell and J. G. Wilson.

The following named gentlemen are the delegates elect from Linn county to the Union State Convention: James H. Foster, N. Bond, Wm. McCoy, James Marks, C. T. Finlayson, W. C. Gallaher, B. W. Redman, J. M. Elliott, Joseph [illegible], W. R. Bishop.

From school statistics published in the Albany Journal we extract the following: The number of districts in Linn county, 69, of which 61 have made reports; legal voters reported 1,681; whole number of scholars in the county, 4,048, the average length of schools taught during the past year in each district, six months and two days.

The Indians, says the Mountaineer, have commenced depredations on the Canyon City road. They have stolen eight horses from the Mountain H[illegible] and a lot of harness from Rock creek. A detachment of soldiers, under Lt. Dichtl started from Camp Watson, in pursuit of them.

New diggings have been discovered on Olive Creek and the Middle Fork of John Days river.

The Idaho has been superseded by the Oneonta, on the Columbia, between the Cascades and Dalles, the former needing some repairs.

The miners about Canyon City are entertaining fears of a flood in consequence of plentiful rains and rapidly melting snow.

A correspondent of the Mountaineer describes the locality of the mining camp of Susanville. It is one hundred and fifty miles from Dalles city and one hundred and ten miles from Umatilla. From Susanville to Olive Creek is twenty miles, and from thence to the head of Burnt river six or eight miles. About Susanville there is a rich mining region, just opening and promising well.

We clip from the Albany Democrat the following particulars in relation to the late murders near Brownsville in Linn county. The report first brought last Saturday morning that Sidney Smith had shot his wife and afterwards cut her throat and then mortally shot himself, was soon changed into a statement that the brother, Thomas Smith, who was on the place at the time, and who originated the first report, was himself the murderer of both the dead. He was arrested on Saturday, and on Monday an examination was held before Justice Ellis of Brownsville. The examination closed on Tuesday, and resulted in Smith's commital for trial at the ensuing term of the Circuit Court for this county, March 29th. There were a number of witnesses examined, but we have not been informed of the precise character of the testimony, farther than that it was pretty conclusive against the accused. S. A. Johns, Esq., of Brownsville, appeared for the State, and Cranor & Helm, Esqs., of this city, for Smith. The chief witness for the prosecution, the eldest daughter of the murdered couple, a young lady of about 15 years, was not among the witnesses. She had given her testimony before the Coroner's jury however, and then stated positively that her uncle, the accused, was the murderer. A younger daughter, aged abot 10 years, swore to the same terrible fact. There are many reports of the details of the affair in circulation, but all generally agree on the following points, viz.: That the accused had been living on the farm during his brother's stay in Idaho, and since Sidney's return he went to live with a neighbor. On the fatal morning he went over to his brother's. There had been some trouble between them growing out of the conduct of the accused in Sidney's absence. The story goes that he tied one of the girls in the orchard, then proceeded to the bloody work, first, he went to the house and shot his brother, next, shot the wife, but not fatally, and she escaped into the orchard; he followed her, caught her, dragged her into the smoke house near the main dwelling, and there cut her throat. Mr Cunningham soon after rode up, and Smith called him in, told him his brother Sidney had killed his wife and then himself, and showed him the bodies. He appeared to be greatly agitated over the affair, and expressed great sorrow. Others were finally called in, and the developments made led to the arrest of the accused. He is soon to answer before a jury of his countrymen upon the frightful charge.

On Tuesday afternoon he was brought to this place and is now confined, securely chained and shackled, in a strong room in the Court House.

Colds and Coughs.—Sudden Changes of Climate are sources of Pulmonary and Bronchial affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies act speedily when taken in the early stage of disease, take at once "Brown's Bronchial Troches," let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be warded off.

HUBS, SPOKES, RIMS, HICKORY AXLES, &c. Just received from New York by E. J. NORTHRUP & CO

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

The Veto Message

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S OBJECTIONS TO THE FREEDMEN'S BILL.

To the Senate of the United States —I have examined with care the bill which originated in the Senate and has been passed by both Houses of Congress to amend an act entitled "An act to establish a Bureau for the relief of freedmen and refugees, and for other purposes." Having with much regret come to the conclusion that it would not be consistent with the public welfare to give my approval to the measure I return the bill to the Senate with my objections to its becoming a law.

I might call to mind in advance of these objections that there is no immediate necessity for the proposed measure. The act to establish a Bureau for the relief of freedmen and refugees which was approved in the month of March last, has not yet expired. It was thought stringent and extensive enough for the purpose in view. Before it ceases to have effect further experience may assist to guide us to a wise conclusion as to the policy to be adopted in time of peace.

I share, with Congress, the strongest desire to secure to freedmen the full enjoyment of their freedom and their property, and their entire independence and equality in making contracts for their labor. But the bill before me contains provisions which, in my opinion, are not warranted by the Constitution, and are not well suited to accomplish the end in view.

The bill proposes to establish by authority of Congress, military jurisdiction over all parts of the United States containing refugees and freedmen. It would by its very nature apply with most force to those parts of the United States in which the freedmen most abound, and it expressly extends the existing temporary jurisdiction of the Freedmen's Bureau, with greatly enlarged powers, over those States in which the ordinary course of judicial proceedings has been interrupted by the rebellion.

The source from which this military jurisdiction is to emanate is none other than the President of the United States, acting through the War Department and the Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau. The agents to carry out this military jurisdiction are to be selected either from the army or from civil life. The country is to be divided into districts and sub-districts, and the number of salaried agents to be employed may be equal to the number of counties or parishes in all the United States where freedmen and refugees are to be found.

The subjects over which this military jurisdiction is to extend in every part of the United States, include protection to all employees, agents and officers of this Bureau, in the exercise of the duties imposed upon them by the bill in eleven States; it is further to extend over all cases affecting freedmen and refugees discriminated against by local law, custom or prejudice in those eleven States. The bill subjects any person who may be charged with depriving freedmen of any civil rights or immunities belonging to white persons, to imprisonment or fine, or both, without, however, defining the civil rights and immunities which are thereby to be secured to freedmen by military law.

This military jurisdiction also extends to all questions that may arise respecting contracts. The agent who is thus to exercise the office of a military judge may be a stranger, entirely ignorant of the laws of the place, and exposed to the errors of judgment to which all men are liable. The exercise of power over which there is no legal supervision, by so vast a number of agents as is contemplated by the bill, must, by the very nature of man, be attended by acts of caprice, injustice and passion.

The trials having their origin under this bill are to take place without intervention of a jury and without any fixed rules of law or evidence. The rules on which offences are to be heard and determined by the numerous agents are such rules and regulations as the President, through the War Department, shall prescribe. No previous presentment is required, nor any indictment charging the commission of a crime against the laws, but the trial must proceed on charges and specifications. The punishment will not be as the law declares, but such as a court martial may think proper; and from these arbitrary tribunals there lies no appeal, no writ of error to any of the Courts in which the Constitution of the United States vests exclusively the judicial power of the country; while the territory and the class of actions and offences that are made subject to this measure are so extensive, the bill itself, should it become a law, will have no limitation in point of time, but will form a part of the permanent legislation of the country.

I cannot reconcile a system of military jurisdiction of this kind, with the words of the Constitution, which declare that "no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger," and that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State or district wherein the crime shall have been committed.

The wisdom and experience of ages taught our fathers to establish as securities for the protection of the innocent, the punishment of the guilty, and the equal administration of justice, are to be set aside, and for the sake of more vigorous interposition in behalf of justice we are to take the risk of the many acts of injustice that would of necessity follow from an almost countless number of agents, established in every parish or county in nearly a third of the States in the Union, over whose decision there is to be no supervisionary control by the Federal Courts. The power that would be thus placed in the hands of the President in such a time of peace is such as should never be entrusted to any one man. If it be asked whether the creation of such a tribunal within a State is warranted as a measure of war, the question immediately presents itself whether we are still engaged in a war? Let us not unnecessarily disturb the commerce, credit and industry of the country by declaring to the American people and the world that the United States are still in a condition of civil war. At present there is no part of our country in which the authority of the United States is disputed. Offences that may be committed by individuals should not work a forfeiture of rights of the community. The country has entered or is returning to a state of peace and industry, and rebellion is in fact at an end. The measure therefore seems to be as inconsistent with the actual condition of the country as it is at variance with the Constitution of the United States.

If in passing from general considerations we examine the bill in detail it is open to weighty objections. In time of war it was eminently proper that we should provide for those who are passing suddenly from a condition of bondage to a state of freedom, but this bill proposes to make the Freedmen's Bureau established by the Act of 1865, as one of the many great and extraordinary military measures to suppress a formidable rebellion, a permanent branch of the administration with its powers greatly enlarged.

I have no reason to suppose, and I do not understand it to be alleged, that the Act of March 1865, has proved deficient for the purpose for which it was passed, although at that time and for a considerable period thereafter, the Government of the United States remained unacknowledged in most of the States whose inhabitants had been involved in the rebellion.

The institution of slavery, for the military destruction of which the Freedmen's Bureau was called into existence as an auxiliary, has been already effectually and finally abrogated throughout the whole country by an amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and practically its eradication has received the assent and concurrence of most of those States in which at any time it had existed. I am not, therefore able to discern in the country anything to justify an apprehension that the powers and agencies of the Freedmen's Bureau, which were effective for the protection of freedmen and refugees during the actual continuation of hostilities and of African servitude, will now in a time of peace and after the abolition of slavery, prove inadequate to the same proper ends. If I am correct in these views there can be no necessity for the enlargement of the powers of the Bureau, for which provision is made in the bill.

The third section of the bill authorizes a general and unlimited amount of support to their destitute and suffering refugees and freedmen and their wives and children. Succeeding sections make provision for the rent or purchase of landed estates for freedmen, and for the erection for their benefit of suitable buildings for asylums and schools, the expenses to be defrayed from the treasury of the whole people.

The Congress of the United States has never heretofore thought itself competent to establish any laws beyond the limits of the District of Columbia except for the benefit of our disabled soldiers and sailors. It has never founded schools for any class of our own people, not even for the orphans of those who have fallen in defence of the Union, but has left the care of their education to the much more competent control of the States, of communities or private associations and of individuals. It has never deemed itself authorized to expend public money for rent or purchase of homes for the thousands, not to say millions of the white race who are honestly toiling from day to day for their subsistence.

A system for the support of indigent persons in the United States was never contemplated by the authors of the Constitution. Nor can any good reason be advanced why as a permanent establishment, it should be provided for one class or color of our people more than for another. Pending the war, many refugees and freedmen received support from the Government, but it was never intended they should henceforth be fed, clothed, educated and sheltered by the United States. The idea on which the slaves were assisted to freedom was that on becoming free they would become a self sustaining population. Any legislation that shall imply that they are not expected to attain a self sustaining condition must have a tendency injurious alike to their character and their prosperity.

The appointment of an agent for every county and parish will create an immense patronage, and the expense of the numerous officers and their clerks to be appointed by the President will be great in the beginning with a tendency to increase. The appropriations asked by the Freedmen's Bureau as now established, for the year 1866 amount to $11 745 000. It may be safely estimated the cost to be incurred under the pending bill will require double that amount, more than the entire sum expended in one year under the Administration of the second Adams.

If the presence of agents in every parish and county is to be considered as a war measure opposition or even resistance, might be provoked, so that to give effect to their jurisdiction troops would have to be stationed within reach of every one of them and thus a large standing force be rendered necessary. Large appropriations would therefore be necessary to sustain and enforce military jurisdiction in every county and parish from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. The condition of our fiscal affairs is encouraging but in order to sustain the present measure of public confidence it is necessary that we practice not merely customary economy, but as far as possible severe retraint.

In addition to the objections already stated the fifth section of the bill proposes to take away land from its former owners without any legal proceedings being first had, contrary to that provision of the Constitution which declares that no person shall be deprived of life liberty or property without due process of law. It does not appear that the lands to which this section refers may not be owned by minors or persons of unsound mind, or by those who have been faithful to all their obligations as citizens of the United States. If any portion of the land is held by such persons, it is not competent for any authority to deprive them of it.

If, on the other hand, it be found that the property is liable to confiscation even, it cannot be appropriated to public purposes until by due process of law it shall have been declared forfeited to the Government.

There are still further objections to the bill on grounds seriously affecting the class of persons to whom it is designed to bring relief. It will tend to keep the mind of the freedman in a state of uncertain expectation and restlessness, while to those among whom he lives it will be a source of constant and vague apprehension. Undoubtedly the freedmen should be protected, but they should be protected by the civil authorities, especially by the exercise of all the constitutional powers of the Courts of the United States and of the States. His condition is not so exposed as may at first be imagined. He is in a portion of the country where his services from planters, from those who are constructing or repairing railroads or from capitalists in his vicinity, or from other States will enable him to command almost his own terms. He also possesses a perfect right to change his place of abode, and if, therefore, he does not find in one community or State, a mode of life suited to his desires, or proper remuneration for his labor he can move to another where labor is more esteemed and better rewarded.

It is earnestly hoped that instead of wasting away, they will, by their own efforts, establish for themselves a condition of respectability and prosperity. It is certain they can attain to that condition only through their own merits and exertions.

In this connection the query presents itself whether the system proposed by the bill will not when put into complete operation, practically transfer the entire care, support, and control of four millions of emancipated slaves to agents, overseers or taskmasters, who, appointed at Washington, are to be located in every county and parish throughout the United States containing freedmen and refugees. Such a system would inevitably tend to such a concentration of power in the Executive as would enable him to control the action of a numerous class, and use them for the attainment of his own political ends.

In truth, however, each State, induced by its own wants and interests, will do what is necessary and proper to retain within its borders all the labor that is needed for the development of its resources. The laws that regulate supply and demand will maintain their force, and the wages of the laborer will be regulated thereby.

There is no danger that the great demand for labor will not operate in favor of the laborer, neither is sufficient consideration given to the ability of the freedmen to protect and take care of themselves. It is no more than justice to them to believe that, as they have received their freedom with moderation and forbearance, so they will distinguish themselves by their industry, and they will fast and soon show the world that in a condition of freedom they are self sustaining, and capable of selecting their own employment and their own places of abode, of insisting for themselves on a proper remuneration, and of establishing and maintaining their own asylums and schools.

I cannot but add another grave objection to the bill. The Constitution, imperatively declares in connection with taxation, that each State shall have at least one representative, and fixes the rule or the number to which in future times each State shall be entitled. It also provides that the Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, and adds with peculiar force that no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its suffrage in the Senate. The original Act was necessarily passed in the absence of the States chiefly to be affected, because their people were then contumaciously engaged in the rebellion. Now the case is changed, and some, at least, of the States, are attending Congress, by loyal representatives, and soliciting the allowance of the constitutional rights of representation. At the time, however, of the consideration and passing of the bill, there was no Senator or Representative in Congress from the eleven States which are to be mainly affected by its provisions.

The very fact that reports were and are made against the good disposition of the country, is an additional reason why they need and should have representatives of their own in Congress to explain their condition, especially to accusations, and assist by their local knowledge in the perfecting of measures immediately affecting themselves. While the liberty of deliberation would then be free and Congress would have full power to decide according to its judgment, there could be no objection urged that the States most interested had not been permitted to be heard.

The principle is firmly fixed in the minds of the American people that there can be no taxation without representation. Great burdens are now to be borne by all the country, and we may best demand that they shall be borne without a murmur when they are voted by a majority of the representatives of all the people.

I would not interfere with the unquestionable right of Congress to judge, each House for itself of the election returns and qualification of its own members, but that authority cannot be construed as including the right to put out, in time of peace any State from the representation to which it is entitled by the Constitution.

At present all the people of eleven States are excluded. Those who were most faithful during the war, not less than others, the State of Tennessee for instance whose authorities were engaged in rebellion, was restored to all her constitutional relations to the Union by the patriotism and energy of her injured and betrayed people before the war was brought to a termination. They had placed themselves in relations with the General Government had established a State Government of their own, and as they were not included in the Emancipation Proclamation they by their own act have amended their Constitution so as to abolish slavery within the limits of their State.

I know no reason why the State of Tennessee for example should not fully enjoy her constitutional relations to the United States. The President of the United States stands towards the country in a somewhat different light from that of any member of Congress chosen from any single district or State. The President is chosen by the people of all the States. Eleven States are not at this time represented in either branch of Congress. It would seem to be his duty on all proper occasions to present their just claims to Congress.

There always will be differences of opinion in the community and individuals may be guilty of violations of the law but these do not [illegible] objections against the right of a State to representation. It would in no wise interfere with the discretion of Congress with regard to the qualifications of members. But I hold it my duty to recommend to you in the interests of peace and interests of the Union the admission of every State to its share of public legislation when (however insubordinate, insurgent or rebellious its people may have been) it presents itself in an attitude of loyalty and harmony, and in the persons of Representatives whose loyalty cannot be questioned under any existing constitutional or legal tests. It is plain that an indefinite or permanent exclusion of any part of the country from representation must be attended by a spirit of disquiet and complaint.

It is unwise and dangerous to pursue a course of measures which will unite any large section of the country against another section of the country no matter how much the latter may preponderate.

The course of emigration, development of industry and business and natural causes will raise up at the South men as devoted to the Union as those of any other part of the land. But if they are all excluded from Congress, if in a permanent statute they are declared not to be in full constitutional relations to the country, they may think they have cause to become a unit in feeling and sentiment against the Government.

Under the political education of the American people the idea is inherent and ineradicable that the consent of the majority of the whole people is necessary to secure a willing acquiescence in legislation. The bill under consideration refers to certain of the States as though they had not been fully restored to the United States. If they have not been restored, it is at once an [illegible] to be considered at the earliest possible moment.

It is hardly necessary for me to inform Congress that in my own judgment most of those States so far at least as depends upon their own action have already been fully restored, and are to be deemed to be entitled to enjoy their constitutional rights as members of the Union, reasoning, from the Constitution itself, and from the actual situation of the country.

I feel not only entitled but bound to assume that with the Federal Courts restored in the several States, and in the full exercise of their functions the rights and interests of all classes of the people will, with the aid of the military in case of resistance to the law, be essentially protected against unconstitutional infringement and violation.

Should this expectation unhappily fail which I do not anticipate, then the Executive is already armed with the power conferred by the act of March, 1865 establishing the Freedmen's Bureau and hereafter, as heretofore, he can employ the land and naval forces of the country to suppress insurrection and to overcome obstructions to the laws.

I return the bill to the Senate in the earnest hope that a measure involving questions and interests so important to the country will not become a law, unless upon deliberate consideration by the people it shall receive the sanction of an enlightened public judgment.

ANDREW JOHNSON

H. R. [illegible]

Auditor and Clerk of the City of Portland

Portland, March 10th, 1866. d1ot

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of R R Thompson (in Grea's Building adjoining the office of the O. S. N. Co.) in this city, until Thursday the 22d day of March 1866, at 5 o'clock P M of said day for [illegible] following First street in said city, between the centre of Vine street and the north line of Madison street in time and manner provided by Ordinance No. 567 passed by the Common Council of the City of Portland and approved March 14th, 1866.

Separate proposals will be required:

First—For removing all perishable material, &c, from and grading the street as required in said Ordinance.

Second—For furnishing material and constructing the curbing and side walks in the manner provided by said Ordinance.

Third—For furnishing material and completing the Nicolson pavement on said street and for furnishing material and constructing the improvement of said street in certain intersections where crossings have been located—in said street as provided in said Ordinance.

Contractors will be required to bid separately "for the work of the said improvement" on each half of the street with the share of improvement of intersections, which is chargeable to each block or lots abutting thereon.

Specifications and Drawings may be seen at the office of W Burrage, City Surveyor.

The Committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids deemed unreasonable.

Bonds will be required for the faithful performance of the work.

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 20 or 30 feet. They are the best wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

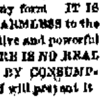
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 10th day of February A. D. 1866 by J. N. Dolph Esq., District Attorney, against four boxes of cigars, one lot of leaf tobacco and one lot of loose cigars alleging in substance, that on or about the 10th day of February, 1866, the said cigars and tobacco were found in the possession of one Frederick Fitts, who was manufacturing cigars without a permit, as required by the laws of the United States, and praying process against said cigars and tobacco and that the same may be decreed forfeited to the United States.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the warrant under the seal of said Court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said cigars and tobacco, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held at the City of Portland on Monday, the 2d day of April, 1866, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

Portland March 12th, 1866.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon on the 1st day of February, 1866, by J. N. Dolph Esq. District Attorney, against forty-five boxes of cigars alleging in substance, that on or about the month of January, 1866, the said forty-five boxes of cigars passed out of the hands of the manufacturer (and not into a bonded warehouse) with out having stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed upon the said boxes by an inspector that the same could not be opened without effacing or destroying said stamps as by law provided; and praying process against said cigars, and that the same may be decreed forfeited to the United States.

Now therefore in pursuance of the warrant under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said forty-five boxes of cigars or any way interested therein, to be and appear before the said District Court, to be held at the City of Portland on Monday, the 2d day of April, 1866 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.
